She Once Had HEAVY LEGS! Now Has Slender Hips, Thighs, Knees, Calves and Ankles!

↑ AFTER
Look at the firmer, slender curves of her legs now. She writes that the change was apparent even before she finished this method.

← BEFORE
Miss B. S. had heavy, flabby legs, was self-conscious because her legs spoiled her entire figure.

"ALL AROUND OLAMOUR LEGS" HELP WOMEN IN EVERYTHING THEY DO

Most figure experts agree that heavy legs spoil an otherwise shapely figure . . . while nicely slenderized limbs add an appearance of over-all beauty to even the heavy and average figure. Because the legs are the one part of the body which always shows, glamorous legs help you look better in any clothes you wear — dresses, skirts, sports and play clothes, bathing suits, etc. They make you a more desirable dance partner and help you do the latest steps more gracefully. Well-formed, firm legs help you in all sports; then enable you to swim, skate, bowl, play tennis, etc., with more ease and better form. They help you walk and stand with ease, with the posture which always wins admiration. Removing excess flabbiness and strengthening your legs will give you more energy for work or play, help lessen fatigue, especially when your job or housework keeps you on your feet.

From the Very FIRST DAY You may Feel the Stimulating Effects of This Method!

"As You Can See, There is a Decided Difference... I Can't Thank You Enough"
— writes Miss B. S., Flushing, N.Y.

The most encouraging news for women with fat, flabby legs has just been revealed by Henry Mitchell, Ph.D. If your heavy legs are due to normal causes and you haven't any disease or pathological condition, you should try to attain the slender, alluring legs you've always wanted. This well-known physiotherapist, who was President of the Metropolitan School of Physiotherapy, has an enviable record of helping lovely stage and screen actresses as well as women like yourself to mold beautiful legs. Over a period of over 30 years, he has used an amazingly natural method which is unsurpassed by anything we have ever seen.

ORDINARY METHODS FOUND TO HELP LITTLE IN SLENDERIZING HEAVY LEGS
Many women engaged in improper strenuous exercises and calisthenics used up a lot of time and energy but it did next to nothing for concentrating on trimming down heavy legs.

Other women actually tried reducing diets alone to slenderize heavy legs. Since a weight reducing diet cannot be made to take weight off any single part of your body, you may lose weight everywhere but in your legs. And if your legs lost a little weight, no drug or diet can normalize and firm the entire contour, which would remain flabby. This method does concentrate on slenderizing each section of your legs from the hips to the ankles.

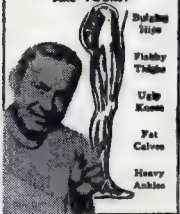

IN MANY CASES DOCTORS ADVISE USE OF THIS TECHNIQUE

This progressive scientific method for slenderizing heavy legs is based on the knowledge and experience of the medical profession, physiotherapists and famous body contour experts throughout the world.

Your heavy flabby legs are usually caused by fatty layers and too much muscle tissue which stretch the muscles of your legs and cause them to bulge.

To help correct this condition properly, you should try this scientific system planned to concentrate on each section of your legs, help break down fatty layers and extra bulging muscle tissue and help strengthen and normalize the muscle tone which makes the contour of the legs more normal, firm, slender and attractive. When each section of the leg has its proper normal shape, the bulging hips possess streamlined, youthful lines which men admire, the flabby thighs are trimmed down into an attractive contour, ugly knees are faintly shaped without puffed-up pouches of flesh, the heavy calves take on more slenderized, alluring curves and even the heavy ankles show sleek, graceful lines.

WHICH LEG PROBLEMS ARE YOURS?

TESTED AND PROVEN METHOD REQUIRES ONLY 15 PLEASANT MINUTES A DAY!

This amazing method has been used by beautiful stage and screen stars, professional models and women in every walk of life. Thousands have gladly paid high fees for personal instruction here in New York City. Now this famous expert makes it possible for any woman to try his method, requiring only 15 minutes a day, right in the comfort and privacy of her own home at a tiny fraction of the cost.

You get the complete, easy, step-by-step illustrated SCIENTIFIC LEG SLENDERIZING TECHNIQUE with simple instructions for fat, flabby hips, thighs, knees, calves, ankles; gaining firmer, stronger legs; improving skin tone and circulation in legs; normal causes of heavy legs; plus measurement chart for each section of leg, according to height and weight; also, how leg slenderness may improve general health. Mail coupon TODAY!

WRITTEN ABOUT IN LEADING HEALTH MAGAZINE

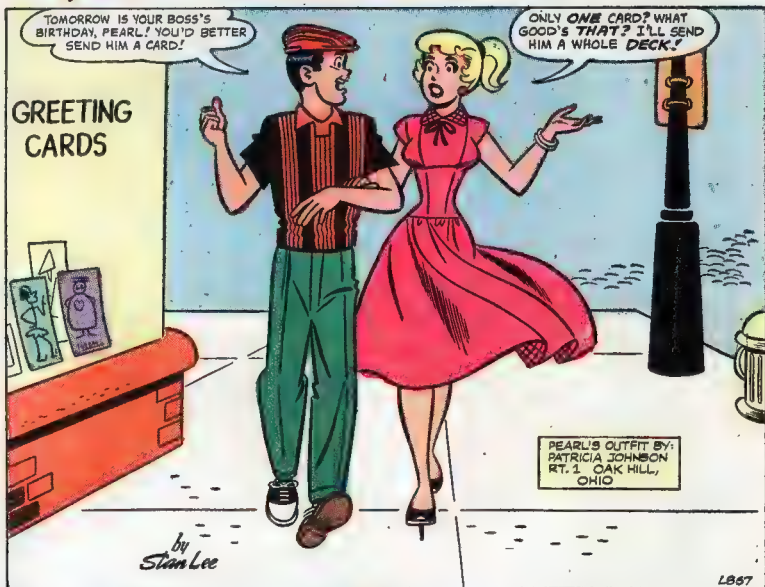

HEALTH CULTURE asked this authority on legs to write a series of articles on the fundamentals of this method. This magazine rightly believed that their readers should know about this wonderful technique. Many other leading magazines and newspapers have written about the priceless advantages of correct leg contour and strength.

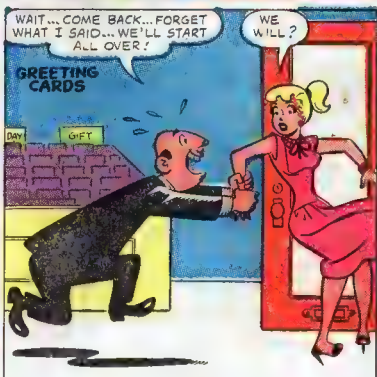

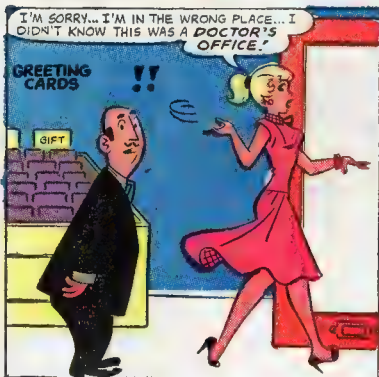

SEE HOW THIS TECHNIQUE HELPED JUST A FEW OF THE MANY OTHERS!

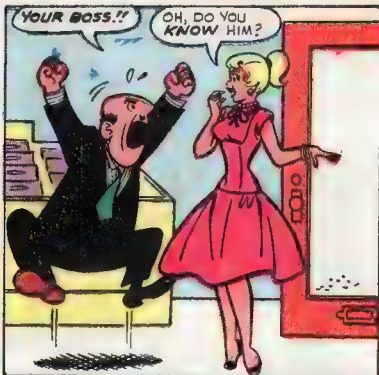

"Never before have I been able to wear shorts and play suits . . . Now I get many compliments, thanks to your course. This is what your course did for my stout legs."
—Miss S. McN., Clopliet, Ky.

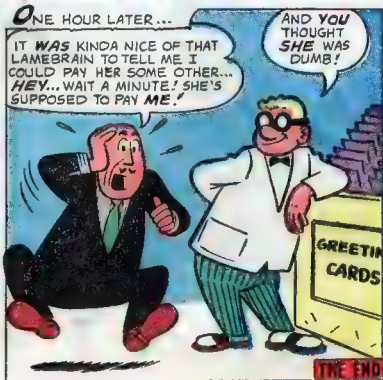

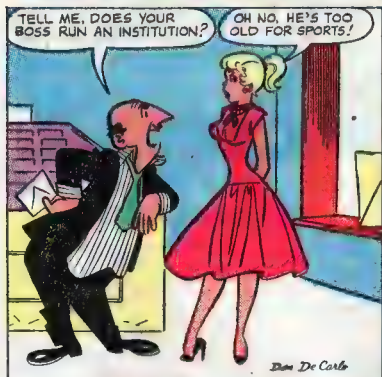

"I thought your course was just wonderful! It is really the best for acquiring more slender, graceful legs. I made a great deal of progress with your course, and would recommend it to anyone who wants level legs."
—Miss A. C., Drumright, Okla.

Away from Home

"OH, I've just got to get away from this awful town! What stupid people, what phonies . . ." Dorie just finished what could be called an hysterical outburst to her friend Janice.

Janice said practically, "I don't know, Dor . . . Billy Caster looks pretty good from here. And I don't think Johnny Coville is too square."

"That all you know!" Dorie pointed her soda straw directly into Janice's nose. "All those characters can talk about is their hot rods or what's playing at the local movie . . . the one movie," she added significantly. "I'm so tired of the same old conversations about the same old people. Don't they know that big things are happening outside the city limit signs of Prairie Falls?"

"I'm not interested," Janice said. "Prairie Falls is good enough for me. At least," she added, "as long as I've got a date every Saturday night."

Janice put on some new lipstick while Dorie set her lips in a hard line and tried to think of something devastating to say.

"Which reminds me . . ." Janice said as an afterthought. "This being Saturday, I've got to get home and have plenty of time to get ready for Lionel before he picks me up."

"Lionel?" Dorie almost shouted.

"And what's wrong with Li?" Janice countered.

"Why . . . Why, he's the livin' end in idiocy! Absolutely . . ." But she didn't get a chance to continue.

"At least he's a date!" Janice definitely looked down her nose. By her silence, Dorie admitted she was right.

"Now if you'll excuse me," Janice picked up her bag and prepared to leave the booth.

"Okay! But I still think," Dorie shouted after her, "that Lionel as well as every other boy in this town is a fourteen-karat eggplant!"

Dorie was still mumbling to herself when she walked into her house about twenty minutes later. Her mother, in the kitchen, could only pick up scraps of her one-sided conversation, but it was enough.

"What's the matter, Dorie?" she asked, wiping her hands on her apron.

"Oh . . . it's nothing, mother. Just . . . just humanity!"

"What about humanity?"

"It's for the birds."

Dorie's mother paused for a minute, then with a peculiar tilt of her head, she said, "Oh, I don't know. I've known humanity for quite a while, and I don't think it's so bad."

"Maybe not all of it," Dorie was forced to agree. "But at any rate the male population of Prairie Falls . . . under twenty-one years of age," she amended.

"It doesn't look very promising," her mother sat down and confided. "But all signs point to improvement with age."

Dorie and her mother both sat on the couch meditating on the subject. Finally Dorie decided to take matters into her own hands.

"AUNT MABEL!" she screeched suddenly.

Her mother started. "What about her?" she asked quickly.

"She's still in Toledo, isn't she?" Dorie questioned.

"Last week she was anyway. Why?" Mrs. Duncan asked suspiciously.

"I want to visit Aunt Mabel and Cousin Joanie for a while, mother. You don't mind, do you?"

Although Mrs. Duncan had been half kidding up to this point, she grew suddenly serious.

"I suppose it could be arranged, honey," she said. "But are you sure you really want to go away?"

"Could I, mother . . . do you think Aunt Mabel would really mind? Only for a week?"

"It would mean leaving all your friends . . ." her mother told her wisely.

"What friends?" Dorie spread her hands wonderingly. "A whole week has gone by without anyone asking me out."

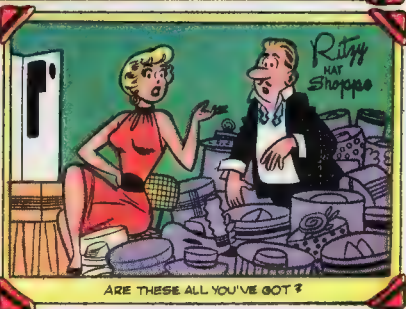

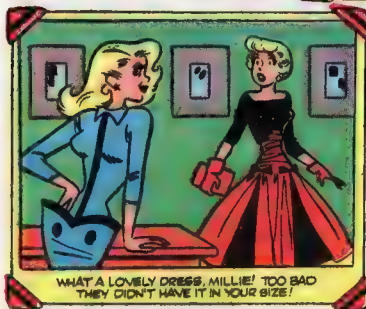

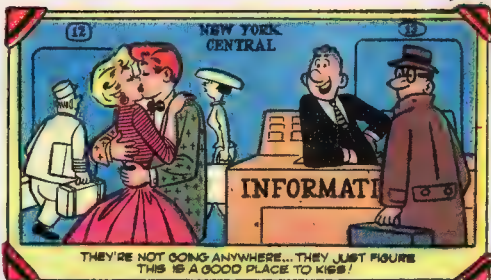

"Now wait a minute," Mrs. Duncan held up a reproving finger to her daughter. "It seems to me you haven't had a party here since the first of the year. You can't be expected to have others treat all the time."

ON RECORDS

You PLAY the very FIRST DAY—By My Famous STUDIO METHOD!

NOW—You can play the guitar quickly, easily, for fun and popularity, even earn money as a popular professional. You'll be amazed—in only 20 minutes a day I teach you on records to play the guitar, right at home, by the same famous studio method that made top-billed musicians out of many of my pupils.

No need to tell you that the guitar is today's most popular instrument. You see it on TV—hear it on the radio—listen to its melodious voice in many of today's top-selling records. Best of all, the guitar is everybody's instrument—just as important in a barn dance as it is in a concert hall.

With my unique, LISTEN-LOOK-PLAY method, you need no "ear for music." I've done away with the old-fashioned long, hard pick-pluck-and-"pray" method. My famous studio lessons come to you on records. I talk to you—you hear me play. I guide your fingers with step-by-step illustrations and diagrams, simple-as-ABC instructions, through complete text and popular music.

AND THAT'S NOT ALL—ACT NOW—and get this full-sized 3 foot long, professional, Spanish-type, steel-stringed, Easy-to-Play GUITAR absolutely FREE with your course!

"Since I have been taking the Sid Margolis Method for Guitar, I have gotten a great deal of pleasure out of my studies. My friends and relatives are amazed at my playing."

Steffi Barstad

"The Sid Margolis Guitar Method is wonderful. I am making the guitar my career and have earned considerable money playing. Last week I won a weekend in New York, an appearance on the Robert Q. Lewis Show and a part time disc jockey job at Station WMSC."

Dorie grew a little defiant at her mother's words. "I don't even want to have them over. I've heard everything they have to say a thousand times."

Dorie put her arms around her mother coaxingly. "It's been a long time since I've been away from home. Maybe if you'd write Aunt Mabel tonight . . ."

After many more words and coaxings, Dorie's mother finally did write her sister Mabel, and before many days had gone by, her answer came back to Prairie Falls.

"It's okay," Dorie repeated the words of the letter. "When can I leave?"

"As soon as you want to, I guess," her mother added, "if you still want to go."

And the late afternoon train found Dorie on her way to Toledo. She had packed all her bags very carefully, with nothing but her most chic dresses and skirts and even her cashmere sweater. The miles chugged by . . . all too slowly for Dorie. Sometimes she almost went to sleep, but the thought of all the new fellows and girls she would meet kept her awake.

Finally, after seemingly endless hours, the train pulled in. Dorie looked around quickly and almost the first people she saw were her Aunt Mabel and Cousin Joanie.

She shouted, "Here . . . here I am," and hardly could look around her all the way to Aunt Mabel's house, they were all talking so much. But Joanie did get a chance to whisper just before they all went to bed, "I've got a dreamy date for you tomorrow night . . . just wait'll you meet him."

It was difficult, but Dorie did wait until she could appropriately excuse herself from family talk the next day and go upstairs to prepare for her date. When Joanie came up a few minutes later, she managed to ask, "What's he like . . . the date you got for me? Is he real interesting?"

"I'll say. If I weren't going steady with Tommy, I'd sure want to go with Jim . . . that's your fellow."

Soon the doorbell rang, and the evening started. Jim was, Dorie had to admit, very good-looking. But toward the middle of the evening, vague doubts started to assail her mind. Oh, the movie was wonderful, but afterwards, at Franklin's ice cream place, she started to listen to the conversation objectively.

She heard, "Howja like the movie?"

"Swell, but there was a

Western at the Rivoli we should've seen instead."

"Didja dig Ralph's new carburetor for the hot rod?"

"No kiddin' . . . one of the new kind?"

Dorie set her chin in her hands and just looked from one to the other. They made no effort to include her in the conversation. Nor did they even pay attention to her when she started to talk about something that she knew about.

"Why, they're just like everybody back home, I suppose," the truth eventually dawned. "The only difference is, I know who they're talking about back in Prairie Falls."

When the evening was finally over, and the fellows dropped the girls back at home, Joanie asked Dorie, "Well, how did you like him? Isn't he just too fascinating?"

"Not particularly," Dorie answered honestly.

"What was the matter with him? All the girls here are crazy to go with him."

"Well," Dorie thought aloud as she sat on the edge of her bed, "I suppose he is kind of attractive, when you know him a little better."

"Gee . . ." Joan started to explain, but Dorie stopped her.

"Listen, thanks for getting him for me . . . and," Dorie added by way of apology, "I think your fellow's just adorable. You make a real cool couple."

That pacified Joanie a great deal, and they said good night. As Dorie was curling up just before going to sleep, she had to admit she felt a good deal more lonesome than she thought she would. Involuntarily, she found herself wondering what Janice was doing, and who she was out with. And she certainly missed her mother and father too.

Before she fell asleep that night, she had made up her mind. The next day she was going home again. And she made up her mind to something else too. She was going to have a party and hear all the old conversations that she knew about and could join.

It was a surprise, but Mrs. Duncan took it in her stride the next day when Dorie burst in through the door, suitcase in hand, three days earlier than she was expected.

"Hey mom," Dorie shouted . . . just like always. "I'm home again."

She put her suitcase down in the hall and sat down on it.

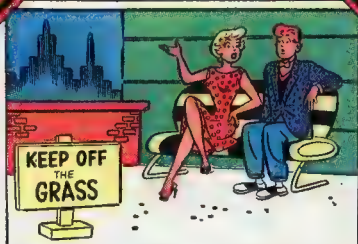

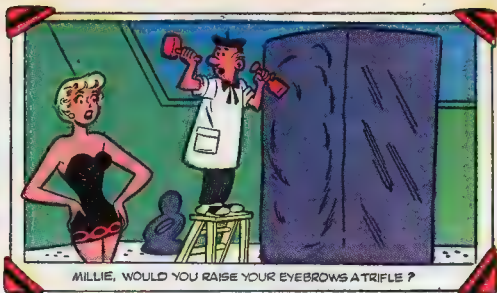

"And y'know what . . . Prairie Falls isn't so bad after all."
